THE INSTRUMENT

Steinway & Sons — Model O-180

“The living-room grand”

STEINWAY & SONS

Model O-180

The living-room grand

The Steinway O-180 is the largest of Steinway's baby grands and the most popular in that family. Exceptionally warm and rich for its size, it was designed to bring the full Steinway sound into more intimate rooms. At 180 cm it is ideal for house concerts, and it is available with Spirio high-resolution player technology.

Handcrafted to Steinway standards

THE BRAND

Steinway & Sons

Founded in 1853, Steinway & Sons remains the benchmark of concert and home pianos — hand-built instruments chosen by the majority of performing artists worldwide. Each grand and upright carries the company's continuous bent rim, diaphragmatic soundboard, and uncompromising action, delivering the unmistakable Steinway voice across generations.
